MUSIC CAREER

2012-2013 - EARLY BEGINNINGS

MzVee first burst onto the Ghanaian music scene in the summer of 2012 as the lead singer of Lynx Entertainment's girl band D3. The band, released hit singles such as 'Good Girls Gone Bad' and 'Gyani Gyani' before litting at the end of 2013 due to educational commitments of the young group members.

2014- PRSENT BREAKTHROUGH

MzVee launched her solo career with her debut single 'Borkor Borkor' released in January 2014. She followed this with the hit single 'Natural Girl' and went on to win the 'Unsung Artiste Award' at the 2014 Ghana Music Awards. Her debut album was released in November 2014 and features collaborations with several award-winning artists such as Stonebwoy, VIP, Shatta Wale, Richie Mensah, Manifest, and Didier Awadi. Following the success of her award-winning debut album, MzVee released her second album titled Verified in November 2015 to rave reviews. The album has earned MzVee 7 nominations at the 2016 Ghana Music Awards including 'Album of the Year' and 'Record of the Year' for the single 'Abofra' which features Efya. Her highly anticipated third album DaaVee was released in May 2017

Musical Style & Recognition (MSR)

MzVee's music contains elements of Afropop, R&B, and dancehall and her strong vocal abilities earned her a nomination for 'Female Vocalist of the Year' at the 2015 Ghana Music Awards and the award for 'Most Promising Artist at the 2015 Ghana Music Honors.

She is regarded as one of the stars of Ghana's dancehall scene and received the award for 'Best Female Vocalist of the Year' at the 2015 Ghanaian Dancehall Awards, BASS awards. Her trademark natural African hair and hit single 'Natural Girl' has made her an inspiration to young girls across Africa who want to celebrate their natural look.

Add a little MzVee's impressive rise to the top continued with a nomination in June 2015 in the 'Best International New Artist' category at the BET Awards 2015.

This brand-new fan-voted category celebrates rising stars from across the channel's international footprint. In October 2015, MzVee was appointed the World Bank Ambassador for their

'End Extreme Poverty Campaign'. She released the official campaign song titled 'End Poverty' and became a World Bank #Music4Dev Guest Artist; a role which has been held in the past by several award-winning artists including D'Banj and D'Banj and Fally Ipupabit of body text
